THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

PUBLISHED DAILY & WEEKLY
—BY—
JOHN S. C. HOGAN & CO.

TO ADVERTISERS AND PATRONS OF THE APPEAL.

We take pleasure in announcing to the advertising patrons of the APPEAL a reduction in our rates of advertising. We make this reduction in justice to the small advertiser, who has heretofore been taxed disproportionately to the large ones.

After about one year's effort to bring the APPEAL back to its old position as the leading and most widely circulated paper in the State, we have succeeded.

We feel justified in saying, that so far as circulation is concerned, there is no better advertising medium in the city or State. We call attention to our terms for advertising. They have been adopted by us without consulting any other journal; and they will not be departed from. They are now no higher than those of the journals of Louisville, lower than those of New Orleans; and as low as is compatible with the existence of a respectable newspaper in Memphis.

Advertisements to occupy fixed places, will be charged fifty per cent. over regular rates.

Advertisements inserted at intervals, to be charged twenty per cent. on regular rates.

Notices in Brevier, twenty cents per line.

Advertisements in WEEKLY, one dollar per square for each insertion.

All advertisements, except for established business houses, with whom we have running accounts, must be paid for in advance.

Marriage and Death notices, fifty cents. Charitable and Religious notices, ten cents per line.

All bills due on first insertion of advertisement. All bills with regular advertisers to be rendered monthly.

By the system now adopted, and from which the APPEAL will in no case depart, we shall be able to advertise lower for prompt men, and not to tax them with the losses which newspaper publishers generally suffer by advertising on credit.

Political notices must hereafter be paid for; and all Special notices will be charged for at the regular price, except when they are strictly voluntary and complimentary.

Communications of a Personal nature will be charged for at the same rates as local notices.

SENSIBLE.
"Voting Cattle for Mean Demagogues."

A correspondent of the New York Pecksniffian organ of Jacobinism, thus treads on its toes:

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.
To the Editor of the Tribune:

SIR: Several gentlemen of high social position were discussing some public topics the other day, and after having admitted the active part which the Tribune is taking in many movements for the public good, for instance, temperance, common justice, and liberty to every race and color, these gentlemen expressed their astonishment at it that this very Tribune only very seldom, if at all, made propaganda for a common school law, similar to that in Prussia, whereby those 20,000 or 30,000 poor children who are growing up wholly neglected on the wharves and piers of the city, and in the streets, might be saved from what they are so much exposed to become—vagabonds, thieves, drunkards, etc.—and the principal reason for the necessity of a compulsory school system was the established fact, that the ignorant part of the population always proves to be only the voting cattle for mean demagogues, and is a permanent danger to the country. Please excuse my liberty. H. W.

New York, January 18, 1868.

Has not the Tribune PROVEN, by its own magisterial assertion, that any body has sense enough to vote? If "the ignorant part of the population always proves to be only the voting cattle for mean demagogues,"—if it is "a permanent danger to the country," one would suppose that the condition of things in the Southern Pachalicks would excite the alarm of all thinking men. Voting, the Tribune thinks, does not require the exercise of judgment or any knowledge of political affairs. The leaders do the thinking; the voters have only to go with their party; ignorance is the most stable basis for a free government; and yet it not long ago said: "Every voter who cannot read is a peril." Then it spoke honestly. Its correspondent H. W. only repeats the same thought in other words; and he states the truth. The negroes are "the voting cattle for mean demagogues;" and negro suffrage means the inevitable ruin of the country.

THE COTTON SUPPLY.

We take the following from the New York World. It seems probable that the conclusions drawn in it are correct. The only question perhaps is, whether the estimate of the quantity of cotton to be received at Liverpool after the 31st of December, from this country, is not largely over estimated. If it is not, there is little or no prospect of any advance in the price; and next autumn, cotton will probably be lower than it is now.

At all events, cotton can no longer be profitably raised. A planter on the Arkansas writes us that its cultivation there will be almost wholly abandoned, and that the planters are so thoroughly disgusted that they look with perfect derision on the movement in Congress to repeal the cotton-tax. The New England manufacturers will in a few years have to import cotton. They foresee it, and hence the determination to take off the duty on raw cotton imported. What a debt of gratitude the country owes Radicalism!

In a carefully prepared estimate of the cotton supply to Liverpool up to May 1st next, the Boston Post, of the 18th inst., reaches the following conclusions: The Liverpool annual cotton statements of December 31st show the actual stoc [redacted] on hand to be 447,460 bales. The amoun [redacted] to arrive at Liverpool from America [redacted] ports after the account of stock of De [redacted] cember 31st, and prior to January 10th [redacted] is estimated at 261,966 bales. The amoun [redacted] to arrive between the 10th of this mont [redacted] and the 1st of May, a period of te [redacted] weeks, is estimated at 440,000 bales, or [redacted] total American supply of 701,966 bale [redacted] The following table will show the resul [redacted]

Stock on hand December 31 ...	447, [redacted]
To be received from America before May	701, [redacted]
To be received from India, Brazil, and Egypt	485 [redacted]
	1,634, [redacted]

The consumption in Great Britain du [redacted] ing the period of seventeen weeks endi [redacted] May 1st is estimated at 52,000 bales p [redacted] week, or 884,000 bales. The export fro [redacted] Liverpool during that time is estimate [redacted] at 12,000 bales per week or 204,000 tot [redacted] The aggregate consumption and expo [redacted] to May 1st will, therefore, be 1,088,000 bales. Deducting this from the supply given above, 1,634,426 bales, we have a surplus in Liverpool on the 1st of May of 546,426 bales, or about 100,000 bales more than the stock of January 1st, with which to begin the season of large arrivals from India. These figures touch Liverpool alone.

The conclusions are widely different from the estimates put forth by speculators to show that the stock of cotton must run very low in Great Britain during the period named. They tend to confirm the estimate made by Senators in the debate on the proposition to repeal the cotton tax, that on the 30th of September next the surplus of cotton in England will exceed one million bales, and that there is no reasonable ground to expect any material rise in the price.

STANTON'S "ECONOMY."

The National Intelligencer, in the course of a long article on STANTON, in reply to a paragraph of the New York Tribune, asking what the Secretary of War had to do with purchasing vessels, and to Gen. GRANT's oracle, Mr. WASHBURNE, says:

The following statements, for one year alone, are taken from the report of the Secretary of War, of December, 1865. In order that the Tribune and Mr. Washburne may, if they deem proper, verify the correctness of the statements herewith presented, the page containing the amounts, etc., is given:

Vessels Chartered, as Published in Report of the Secretary of War December, 1865.

Vessels Owned.

" 30—155 vessels, cost not stated.
" 193 98 " " "
" 191—309 vessels, while Grant was before Richmond, at a daily cost of $18,000.
" 205—599 vessels enumerated, cost of part only given.

Not one of these vessels belonged to or was attached to the naval service, or performed blockade or cruising service. They were transports, with numerous barges and fancy steamboats, supported at enormous expense, for the general officers and for the War Department. Nearly every show-General, like Butler et id omne genus, stationed on the coast or on the Mississippi river, had one, two or three boats for his own pleasure and convenience, as he had ambulances at his disposal. Mr. Stanton had two or three steamers here at Washington.

* * *

Ninety-five millions were expended by the War Department alone for vessels that for the most part were useless. It was this profligacy of the public treasure, not any well applied means, which gave the redoubtable Secretary of War the soubriquet of "Carnot." His fright after the appearance of the rebel iron-clad Merrimack, which led him to the suggested fatal act of severing our connection with the ocean by sinking fifty canal boats loaded with stone in the Potomac, was another exploit of the "Carnot" of the war. His telegrams to the Governors of New York, Massachusetts and Maine, to fill up the entrances to their harbors, were another.

To Whiten Lace.

Lace may be restored to its original whiteness by first ironing it slightly, then folding it and sewing it into a clean linen bag, which is placed for twenty-four hours in pure olive oil. Afterward the bag is boiled in a solution of soap and water for fifteen minutes, then well rinsed in lukewarm water, and finally dipped into water containing a slight proportion of starch. The lace is then taken from the bag and stretched on pins to dry.

GLASS has always been supposed to resist completely chemical action by all acids but fluoric. It is found, however, that some bottlemakers in Europe are in the habit of increasing the amount of alkali, and thus saving the fuel required to fuse the ingredients. Wine placed in bottles thus made, acts upon the glass and makes it opaque, and thus adds to the wine a salt which is neither pleasant nor wholesome. Of course, wine so affected deteriorates in value.

The Seneca Advertiser tells the following: The pastor of a certain church, not a thousand miles from this place, a few Sabbaths ago, when about to baptise a child, reproved the flock in the following fashion: "My dear people, I feel that you are neglecting parental duties, as this is only the second child presented for baptism during my pastoral connection with the church," (Sensation among the crinoline.)

—Judge N. A. Patterson and H. T. Carr, Esq., of Winchester, have invented and matured a new "Hotel Indicator," upon which they have made application for United States letters patent.

IN AND ABOUT THE STATE CAPITAL.
NASHVILLE, TENN., January 27, 1868.
Editors Memphis Appeal:

The passage of a Homestead Exemption bill is now before the Legislature. It was first proposed by Representative M. J. J. Cagle, from Dixon county, an able, clear, but not an educated man, who has long agitated for it. His plan exempts from execution for debt a thousand dollars' worth of either real or personal property, selected by the debtor, and also a hundred dollars' worth of property for each infant or dependant member of the family. This is emphatically a poor man's bill. It not only protects land owners but all other classes. The spirited debate over it has not been in relation to its principles, but rather from the wish of other gentlemen to have some bill passed, of which they are the father.

There are two measures suggested in relation to the State Penitentiary. There are between five and six hundred inmates of that institution, and there must be either a large appropriation to enlarge it, by the erection of new buildings, or measures taken to relieve it of its superabundant inmates. This may be done by the course proposed in the Senate, to only send to it prisoners guilty of larcenies or robberies of property worth say over twenty dollars. Between two and three hundred of the prisoners have been sent to the Penitentiary, for stealing less than five dollars' worth of property, each.

The necessity of some reform is obvious, from the fact that including indictment, sheriff's fees, prosecutor's fees, jurors' fees, jailor's fees, cost of transportation, and other expenses, each inmate of the Penitentiary costs the State on an average over three hundred dollars to get him there, and if pardoned out, or at the expiration of his term each has to get ten dollars in money and a good suit of clothes. There were over a hundred pardoned last year, and on leaving each cost the State about thirty dollars.

A project to transfer the Supreme Court sittings from Jackson, causes some feeling. Carroll county and that section is anxious to have it at Huntingdon, an old one-horse town on the Northwestern Railroad, or at Paris. Part of the West Tennessee people strongly urge the transfer to Brownsville, and others still to Memphis. Brownsville would be infinitely preferable to Huntingdon, but Memphis is the proper place. If our lawyers have to go to Huntingdon to try cases before the Supreme Court, Insurance Companies should put an extra premium on their lives.

A bill is proposed to aid internal improvements by a loan to a private corporation; and as this is something new in legislation, it merits attention. A company owns sixty thousand acres of mineral land in Washington and other adjacent counties in the upper part of the Knoxville valley. On this land is iron ore of the best quality and in unlimited amount. The company lack capital to develope the mineral wealth, and it offers to give to the State a mortgage on the sixty thousand acres of land, if it gets forty thousand dollars' worth of State bonds as a loan. The company will give security and obligate itself under a penalty to produce four thousand tons of iron a year. Its head is the worthy gentleman and distinguished practical geologist, Mr. John Caldwell, the discoverer of the Ducktown copper mines, which in four years produced twenty seven thousand tons of copper ore. The company now asking State aid claims that the loan they ask will be better secured, and tend more to develope the wealth of the State than loans to railroads, which are all the internal improvements that have heretofore been regarded by the State.

An immense deposit of magnetic iron ore has been discovered in Carter and Johnson counties, and specimens are now here on exhibition. It will further the building of the French Broad Creek and other railroads in that section.

A vast deposit of red fossiliferous iron ore has been found in Franklin county. Ore can be furnished at Chattanooga for $2 50 a ton, and coal for ten cents a [redacted] mammoth orchard, which will consist of 5000 apple trees, 10,000 peach trees, 8000 pear trees, 2600 cherry trees, 1500 Chickasaw plums, 6 acres of quinces, 26 acres of strawberries, 20 acres of raspberries, 8 acres of blackberries and 15 acres of grapes.

The more honey bees have on hand in March and April, the faster they will rear young bees, and the more workers will be ready to gather the harvest from fruit blossoms.

That great English experimenter, Mr. Lawes, states that 500 pounds of barley meal, where it is made a sole feed for swine, will increase the weight of a pig from 100 to 200 pounds.

The expense of threshing wheat with ten-horse power thresher and cleaner amounts to 15 1-6 cents per bushel, while the cost with a two horse power thresher is but 8 cents a bushel. The former will turn out 300 bushels per day, and the latter 150 bushels. Besides this, the small machines work on a barn floor, and all the grain is saved, while the large ones are operated out of doors, and attended with considerable waste.

A writer in the Southern Planter and Farmer, published in Richmond, states that a gentleman of Charlotte county, Va., tested the comparative results of white and black labor last year. He furnished thirteen negroes with mules and implement and provisions to raise a crop, and at the same time furnished an outfit to two white men. The negroes raised ninety-four barrels of corn, seven sacks of oats and five thousand pounds of tobacco. The two white men, with a little negro girl to cook for them, raised one hundred and twelve and one half barrels of corn, ten sacks of oats and eight thousand pounds of tobacco. The negroes returned the mules in a poor, emaciated condition. The white men returned theirs over fat and sleek. The negroes worked four mules and the whites two. The gentleman referred to will, this year, work white men exclusively.

In speaking of strawberry culture the New Orleans Picayune says:

One of the greatest difficulties with those who attempt to produce fruits in this country is, that they attempt too much. If a man hears that a successful strawberry man has made $1000 or $1200 per acre in a season, he at once goes to work to plant ten or twenty acres. He is not likely to have experience or knowledge of the mode of culture. Could he take a few plants and study them well, he would learn all the art of culture, and could then practice it. A quarter, or even an eighth of an acre, would do to study on. The next difficulty is, that when so much land is tried at the start, it is not well prepared, nor the plant well set out. Then they need shading and watering, probably, at first, and this, where there are so many, is not done. The consequence is, that most of the plants die, or live sickly and unproductive. Another mistake is in putting negroes to work on them, and negroes are destruction to a garden.

It is very true that Mr. Wiggins, of Ponchatoula, has eight acres in strawberries, and that he has this year had them six months, three in spring and three in fall, in full bearing, and that next year he hopes to have them eight months, and that he is setting out grape vines, with the expectation of increasing also his strawberry area to twenty five acres, and of having one hundred acres in those two kinds of fruit, and that when he accomplishes this, his one hundred acres of piny woods land will be more profitable than any three thousand acre plantation in cotton and sugar; but he gives his own personal, daily attention to these things, and employs no negro to do it for him. If he has any one it is a white man. But, says some one, this market is too limited a one. In that case he can send to New York and Chicago, and the railroad companies will furnish express trains to carry the fruit as is done by the roads of the North, West and East.

PATENT MEDICINES.

MRS. JACKSON'S
Queen Bess Complexion Wash.

THE following certificates, selected from hundreds in the possession of the proprietress, are confidently submitted to the public:

MRS. WOLCOTT'S CERTIFICATE.
QUINCY, ILL., November 5, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—It is with pleasure that I certify to you, that seeing one of your circulars, which contained certificates and indorsements from the best physicians and highest medical authorities of the United States, certifying that your oils for the complexion and teeth were purely the oils, extracts and essences of flowers, and that they warrant it when used according to directions to cure the worst and most difficult cases of nursing, sore mouth, canker of the stomach, bowels and dyspepsia. For scrofulous disorders, when used both internally and externally it has no equal. Dear Madam, seeing this, and my little daughter, aged fifteen months, having the whooping cough for several months, accompanied with what the doctors call white canker, her mouth and throat being terribly ulcerated, and I having tried everything for its relief I could hear of, all to no purpose, I bought one bottle of your oil for the complexion, called "Queen Bess," went according to the directions, did not use quite one bottle, and I am most happy to state to you that it has cured my child. She is now as well and hearty as ever she was in her life. I give you this, my certificate, hoping you will publish it, that thousands of others who may be afflicted with any of the above afflictions may at once get a bottle of your "Queen Bess," for I feel sure they will find immediate relief.
Yours respectfully,
MRS. GEO. WOLCOTT,
Jersey street, bet. Sixth and Seventh.

MRS. WM. R. COLLINS' CERTIFICATE.
HANNIBAL, MO., August 22, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—I am most happy to inform you that after having suffered more than three years with what some physicians call nursing sore mouth, or canker of the mouth and throat, I tried various remedies, but found nothing to do me any good until I heard of your oils for the complexion and teeth, called "Queen Bess." I bought one bottle, went according to directions, and am truly thankful to say I have found a permanent cure. Hoping you will publish this, that other poor sufferers may be benefitted by it, I remain,
Yours respectfully,
MRS. WM. R. COLLINS.

FASSMAN'S IRON TIES
—FOR—
COTTON BALES.

THE undersigned have made extensive arrangements to supply the demand for these Ties the present season.
In addition to the FASSMAN DIAMOND TIE and BUTTON TIE, so extensively used heretofore, they now offer the ALLIGATOR TIE, with teeth so arranged as to constantly clamp the hoop when the pressure is removed from the bale, and hold it without slipping.
Great pains have been taken to secure the best quality of Iron.
These Ties are so simple in their arrangement that they can be applied by any one, to bales of any size, with the same facility and expedition as rope. In strength, security and facility of application, they will compare favorably with any yet introduced.
The advantages of Iron Ties are now generally recognized; but it is deemed not out of place to call the attention of those interested to the very emphatic recommendation of Underwriters, Steamboat Captains, and Owners and Agents of Sea Steamers and Sailing Vessels, recently published in the newspapers in New Orleans.

THE FOLLY OF DISTRUST.

The ancients represented those whom the Gods had made mad in order to destroy them, as driven onward to their fate by the Furies.

So the Jacobin leaders in Congress seem to be driven onward from blunder to blunder and from crime to crime, by a fatal and resistless necessity. Unfortunately they drag the country with them towards the abyss of ruin. The Revolutionary Demagogue who makes the passions of the people his instruments, is always at last their victim; and he deserves to be, because to condense these passions, of anger, hate and revenge, into legislation, is to launch the country upon a career that must end in anarchy; and out of anarchy always at last emerges a bloody despotism.

As with individuals, so with nations: one error or crime creates the necessity for another. Men soon become familiarized with violations of the Constitution, however peremptory and plain its provisions, until they are no longer startled at the most infamous enactments and the cruelest iniquities of legislation.

The people of the United States, in all their legislation since their conquest of the South, have taken counsel only of their passions; until the condition of the country, politically, financially and socially, has become such that it may well alarm all reflecting men. We need not picture that condition. Utter ruin has fallen upon the South, while every interest in the Northern States sickens and languishes. In the two cities of New York and Philadelphia, a hundred thousand men and women are out of employment. The manufacturing establishments discharge their hands, the shipping interest has fallen into decay, the taxes have become an intolerable burthen, repudiation of the obligations of the Government is openly advocated, and the people of the North see with apprehension and alarm a dark mass of ignorant voters hanging like a cloud on the Southern horizon, as the old Scythian hordes in the evil days of Rome hung menacingly on the borders of the Empire, threatening to blot out civilization. One almost imagines, (for men in such times become superstitious,) that the convulsions which have lately shaken the earth with terror, were, by that mysterious sympathy which the ancients deemed to exist between the different parts of the great domain of nature, the precursors of the great agonies about to torture a doomed nation.

The misfortunes of a nation are always the consequences of its errors or its crimes. The justice of GOD pursues the nation as well as the individual. All that is now befalling the North has its roots in the Past, and is the consequence of its lamentable lack of magnanimity in the moment of victory. It hypocritically pretended that all it desired and fought for was the restoration of the Union. It opened its arms to the Southern States, and besought them to return to the ancient fellowship. Its President said to the men of the South, of whom one hundred and fifty thousand were then in arms, and therefore entitled to be respected, and fit to be cajoled, "I will not make terms with you, while you face us as enemies, armed; but if you will lay down your arms and trust to our generosity, you shall have no cause to repent it." Was the promise kept? No: there is not a tribe of barbarians in Central Africa, that would not be ashamed to dishonour itself as the Northern States have done, by treating us as conquered slaves.

What was it for which we fought? For an idea: for the rights and sovereignty of our States: for a nationality and an independence, to which we had at least as much right as the thirteen Colonies had when they threw off their allegiance to the mother-country. The Northern States had multiplied until they were able to enforce their own theory of the Constitution. The theory of the Government which we believed to be the true one, had become a mere abstraction. The sovereignty of the States had become a mere idle word. The new States were only sovereign in name. We could maintain our States in the possession of their ancient prerogatives, only by separating from the North, and becoming an independent Republic.

We still religiously believe that to maintain unimpaired the Sovereignty of the States was indispensable to the perpetuation of a free government; was the only guarantee of a permanent republicanism. The government of numbers is inevitable ruin. The convulsions of the present are the death-spasms of the Nation. The destruction of the Sovereignty of the States was the death-blow of Constitutional government. We fought to preserve that Sovereignty. Unfortunately we were placed in the attitude of fighting to perpetuate slavery, and so lost the sympathies of the Nations of the world. We foresaw corruption of blood of the Commonwealth, in the presence of millions of emancipated negroes; and the instinct which warns men and even animals of approaching danger was even stronger with us than reason. If we had dreamed that the conqueror would insist on infecting with the syphilitic virus of negro political equality the body politic, to soften and rot the very bones of the Commonwealth, we should not have laid down our arms and trusted to the broken reed of the generosity of a people incapable of magnanimity, because furious with passion.

When our armies surrendered, it was because the thinking men of the South had months before become convinced that to maintain the sovereignty of the States was an impossibility. That sovereignty had been totally ignored in the Confederacy itself, and hung in rags and tatters round the half naked limbs of our States. We had struggled for it and lost. But if we could not enforce our own construction of the Constitution—if it was no longer to be for us a compact between the States, we nevertheless preferred it, as a supreme law enacted by the people of all the States, to any other form of government in the world. If, when we had laid down our arms, the people of the North had said to us, "You have fought for your construction of the Constitution, and have lost. You say so frankly and submit. Whatever the Government was at the beginning, the multiplication of States has made it impossible to continue the doctrine of State Sovereignty. The United States must necessarily be one nation. As you cannot secure the perpetuity of republican liberty on your theory, let us agree to try to do it on ours. Let us hold a Convention of delegates from the States, and change the Constitution, so that it shall read as it has become, by the insensible influences of time,"—if this had been said to us, and if it had been added, "generous enemies bury their hatreds in the graves of their dead heroes, and put their glories into the common stock," we should have clasped hands, and we, strong as we were and are in our convictions, would have been among the first to agree to change the Constitution: and the men in the South who would have been truest to it as amended, most loyal, least remembering the acerbities of war, would have been those who were truest to their States and their beleagured South in the days of her necessity. They would have been worth something to the Union; they are worthless now. The people of the North have very poorly invested their confidence in the scurvy renegades who were untrue to their own States,—the JUDASES ISCARIOTS whose souls were dear at thirty pieces of silver each. We do not speak of those men, few in number, who manfully and honorably, from the beginning and all the time, declared themselves opposed to secession and devotees of the Union, and took the consequences. Them we honoured; and no one of them was, with our consent, ever treated otherwise than with honour. We do not even speak of the cowardly who bowed and bent before the storm, and uttered words of devotion to the Confederacy that their hearts disavowed. We must not expect too much of human nature. We speak of those miserable knaves who adhered to the Confederacy and were ferociously patriotic while they thought it would succeed, to abandon it when they found its fortunes sinking. The man that was thus untrue to the South will deceive his God, if he can; and the lizard, the frog or the hound is of a nobler nature. There is not on this earth a creature more unworthy of God's consideration or man's charitable opinion, than he who after plighting his faith to the South and its people, apostatized from what he deemed the losing cause, and sought to make profit by his apostacy. The touch of his hand would contaminate that of an honest man: his presence among gentlemen poisons the atmosphere.

The war against us was in our estimation an unjust one. We did not doubt our right to nationality and independence. We did not doubt the right of our States to withdraw from the Union. That faith was as old in the heart of the South, as the Republic itself. Our convictions as to that are only strengthened by time and by sober reflection. But it is the fate of States and Provinces, after struggling against it in vain, to be consolidated into nations, and like Burgundy and Normandy, and Brittany, to become Departments, privileged to remember the glories of their ancient sovereignty and independence. As to that, the will of the people will be the law; and when our States had done their utmost to retain their old prerogatives, and failed, we submitted without any mental reservation. The Union was restored and consolidated then, if the North had reached out its hand to us. It would have done so, perhaps, but for the paltry herd of politicians who fatten upon the calamities of the country, and whose interests the restoration of the Union would have endangered;—but for the vindictiveness of some men and the fanaticism of others;—but for the pulpit, and the tribune, the twin nuisances of the republic.

We wanted no Dictatorship, no Monarchy. We were never disloyal to the principles of the Constitution. Our devotion to Republican liberty never faltered. We preferred our American form of government, even under the Northern construction of the Constitution, to any other in the world; and we found, when the passions inflamed by the war grew cold, that the old feeling of brotherhood was not extinct. No man is worthy to be called a statesman who brands a whole people as actuated by unworthy motives and criminal intentions,—no one who cannot honour honest convictions, and appreciate a frank submission that in no degree partakes of baseness or cowardly apprehension.

Have not the people of the North followed these ignoble leaders long enough? They cannot much longer oppress the people of the South, without bringing ruin upon themselves. Nothing pays so poorly as persecution and revenge; and the ungenerous conqueror either loses by folly the fruits of victory, or, if he retains them, multiplies discontents and hatreds, to make inevitable his own future ruin. It is the thorough-paced Jacobin, like ROBESPIERRE or STEVENS, who uses the people and despises them. The danger to the country of letting "rebels" vote, is the bugbear by which the Jacobin leaders delude and manage the people: and yet they are willing that any rebel shall vote, if he will but prove himself, by tergiversation and apostacy, unworthy of the acquaintance of any honest man. The wisest man is not he who most distrusts his fellows; and men lose more by their suspicions of others, by being too distrustful, than by trusting too much.

The "political notices" which have heretofore appeared in the Avalanche have not been "paid for," and they will not be "paid for" in the future. We derive our support from the great Conservative-Democratic heart of the South, and it is our duty and our pleasure to publish "political notices" without being "paid for." Friends, send in your "political notices" of public meetings, for public meetings—anything having for its object the defeat of Radicalism and the triumph of equality, justice, liberty, and they will find a conspicuous place in the Avalanche, which charges nothing for doing its duty to its party, its supporters and its principles.—Avalanche of January [illegible].

WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.]

WASHINGTON, January 28.—The dominant party in Congress seem to act upon the idea that they are damned politically beyond redemption, and therefore they can incur no greater penalties by heaping iniquity upon iniquity. Their last abomination is a bill introduced in the House yesterday and passed. It provides that in case a Senator of the United States becomes President of the United States, by reason of having been President pro tem. of the Senate, and his term of office as such Senator shall expire before the next Presidential election provided by law, such Senator shall, notwithstanding the expiration of his term of office as Senator, continue to hold the office of President until his successor is elected and qualified at the time regularly prescribed by law; and the office of such Senator shall be vacated from and after the time he shall become President as aforesaid. All of this, of course, is to provide for Ben. Wade, who has just been repudiated by his own State. It is only a part of a plan which is evidently intended to strike at the President.

The resolution passed by the same body yesterday authorizing the Reconstruction Committee to ascertain whether any person has attempted to obstruct reconstruction laws, will furnish the pretext which is to involve the President in the meshes of the net. To-day the design was further developed in Senator Edmund's bill to regulate procedure in cases of impeachment, all of which is to suspend the President pending such trial, and make Wade President, then the governmental machine will be worked entirely in the interest of Radicalism.

The Committee on Appropriation have agreed on the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Appropriation bill, which will be reported to-morrow. They cut down the estimates from thirty to twenty-two millions.

The Army bill will also be reported to-morrow, with estimates cut down from thirty-seven to twenty-five millions. This will cause the dismissal of a large number of civil employees in the War Department, including several hundred clerks.

The Naval Appropriation will also be greatly reduced. The Civil and Diplomatic bill will also be launched to-morrow with figures reduced much below the estimates, and it will relieve from office Assistant Secretary of State Hunter, the solicitor and "examinator" of claims in the State Department. Each of these bills will propose a large reduction of clerical force, and will meet with much opposition in the House.

The President has nominated W. D. Bishop, of Connecticut, Commissioner of Patents. It is not thought he will be confirmed. In that event, the name of Col. Cox, Chief Clerk of the Interior Department, will then be sent to the Senate.

Gov. Jenkins, of Georgia, has taken legal steps in the Supreme Court to test the right of Gen. Grant and Meade to dispossess him of his office. It was decided last year, in cases where the President was defendant, that no action could be taken against him; but it is contended that this would not apply to cases against Grant and Meade.

The nomination of Ross Brown as Senator to China creates surprise. He is a capital good fellow, but travels in Washoe, Sierra, etc., are not supposed to be a special qualification for diplomatic service.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations will report favorably on the nomination of S. S. Cox as Minister to China. Cox, the other day at a dinner party, toasted Simon Cameron as one of the great men of the war.

A case will be soon before the Supreme Court testing the constitutionality of the income tax.

Eggleston, of Ohio, has been heard from. Rising to a question of privilege, he had read a telegram announcing Beatty's election by the Radicals. [A laugh was created and the Speaker decided it was not a privileged question.] Ben subsided.

MISSISSIPPI.

BLACK AND TAN CONVENTION.

Printing Report in Favor of More Stealing.

Special Dispatch to the Memphis Appeal.]

JACKSON, MISS., January 28.—Mr. Anderson moved to act upon the resignation of Mr. Orr, chairman of the Committee on Printing, tendered yesterday on account of the objections urged against the bill reported. He hoped the resignation would not be accepted. Mr. Townsend offered to give a bond of thirty thousand (30,000) dollars to do the work for one-third of what is proposed to give the Public Printer, and when the chairman of the committee brings in the report allowing such stealings as this one does, and then offer his resignation because he does not desire the report to be investigated, it should be accepted. Orr's resignation was accepted.

Nothing else done to-day. A slight snow has been falling since 4 p.m.

ARKANSAS.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Large Attendance.

The State for White Men.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.]

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., January 28.—The Democratic State Convention met and organized yesterday, with a full attendance of prominent men from all parts of the State. Brilliant speeches were delivered last night to an enthusiastic audience at the City Hall, which has been handsomely decorated with evergreens by the ladies, and was full to overflowing with Whigs, Democrats, Irish and Germans, all happily blended together for the advancement of the white man's party against negro rule. The Convention continues in session to-day. Everything is going on harmoniously. Arkansas will not be ruled by negroes.

FROM VICKSBURG.

VICKSBURG, January 28.—Sergeant Gilbert H. Bates, of Wisconsin, who made a bet to carry the stars and stripes from Vicksburg to Washington, without money and unarmed, started hence today at 11 a.m. An immense crowd, headed by the Mayor, Common Council, and many prominent citizens, together with a brass band, accompanied him as far as the Grant and Pemberton fortifications, where they bade him farewell, with many good wishes.

The steamer Indiana, from Louisville for New Orleans, ran aground yesterday at Island 110, forty miles above here. She lies in a precarious condition, and her cargo is being thrown overboard.

FROM RALEIGH.

RALEIGH, January 28.—The Convention to-day adopted two sections of the article on government, etc. They provide for a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Works, Superintendent of Instruction and Attorney General, whose terms of office shall be two years, but those first elected are to enter upon their duties within thirty days after the acceptance of the Constitution by Congress, and serve two years from January 1st, 1869.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, January 28.—Thirty thousand bushels of bulk grain arrived here yesterday. In consequence of the large amount of grain arriving for foreign shipment, freight room is very scarce. The Convention is still at a stand on the disfranchisement question. In the debate yesterday, the "lie" was passed between two delegates.

There is no apparent prospect of an early settlement of this question.

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, January 28.—Pomeroy, from the Committee on Banking and Currency, reported a bill relative to taxing the shares of National Banks. It provides that the words "place where the bank is located, and not elsewhere," in section 41 of the national currency act of June 3, 1864, shall be construed and mean the State within which the bank is located, and the Legislature of each State may determine and direct the manner and place of taxing all shares of National Banks located within such States, subject to the restriction that the taxation shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed on other monied capital in such States, and provided always that shares of National Banks owned by non-residents, in any States, shall be assessed in the city or town where such bank is located, and not elsewhere. The bill was passed.

Pomeroy, from the same Committee, reported back the bill introduced by Randall in regard to the deposits of public monies. It provides that a National Bank shall not be selected in any State or place where there is located a Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer, and that all public monies collected or received for the Government in any such place, shall be deposited with the Treasurer, and shall be subject only to the draft of the Secretary of the Treasury, or the Treasurer of the United States, as provided by law, and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury from time to time shall deem expedient, and any public officer depositing public money otherwise than is provided in this bill, and any person aiding therein, is to be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding three years. After some debate Pomeroy moved an amendment applying the provisions to all collectors of public monies within fifty miles of a city where there is a treasurer or assistant treasurer. The amendment was agreed to and the bill as amended was passed.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bill declaring forfeited to the United States certain bonds granted to aid in the construction of railroads in the States of Alabama, Mississippi Louisiana and Florida, but without coming to a vote, the House adjourned.

SENATE.

A petition from the Virginia Convention for a modification of the Bankrupt laws, was referred to the Judiciary Committee. Also one from the Mississippi Convention indorsing the report of the Special Committee on a proposition to declare vacant certain civil offices. Referred to the same. Also one from the Georgia Convention relative to the establishment of a civil government in that State. Likewise referred.

Morton, from the Committee on Finance, reported favorably on the resolution to instruct the Secretary of the Treasury that whenever any State is in default of the payment on stocks or on bonds in trust by the United States, to retain the monies due from the United States to each State.

After the introduction of several unimportant bills, the Senate resumed the consideration of the reconstruction bill.

Frelinghuysen, in the course of his remarks, said "that should a war of races occur at the South, an army at the North would arise and assert the supremacy of the negro race."

Edmonds introduced a bill regulating procedures in cases of impeachment and to enforce the orders and judgments of the Senate in such cases. The most important of the provisions of the bill are those relating to the suspension from office of persons on trials. This may be done by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present, on the application of the House, and may be enforced by any officer in the civil, naval or military service, with the force at his disposal. Any officer disregarding such an order from the Senate shall be considered guilty of contempt, and suspended during the progress of the proceedings against him; and the punishment therefor is fixed at a fine not exceeding $50,000, or imprisonment from one to twenty years, or both, at the discretion of the Senate.

Patterson, from the Committee on Retrenchment, reported a bill which provides that after thirty days from its passage no special agents are to be appointed by the President, or the departments, without the confirmation of the Senate, nor any of such whose character and salaries are not authorized by statute, and the tenure of such as are now lawfully employed shall expire within thirty days after such passage. The appointment of twenty-five general and special agents, by the Treasury Department, to aid in the detection of counterfeits, is authorized. The Postmaster General is empowered to appoint agents to promote efficiency in that service in different parts of the United States, but information thereof must be sent to the Senate at the beginning of each session.

The deficiency bill came up from the House with an amendment of refusal to concur in the Senate's amendment. The Senate insisted on the amendment, and appointed another conference committee. The announcement was also made of the House's refusal to concur in the Senate's amendment on the bill repealing the tax on cotton, and exempting foreign cotton imported after the first of July. Another committee of conference was agreed to, and Morgan, Conness and Buckalew were appointed.

The joint resolution to appoint a committee to report on spirit metres was then considered.

Sherman moved to amend it by allowing the Commission until the 1st of March instead of February 15th. Agreed to.

Sumner moved to strike out the second section of the bill, which suspends the work on metres until further orders from the Secretary of the Treasury.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 28.—Banks' bill in regard to the rights of American citizens abroad, it is understood, is in accordance with the views of the State Department.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of H. E. Wells, of Michigan, as Consul at Manchester, England.

The President has sent to the Senate the following nominations: J. Ross Brown, of California, as Minister to China; Wm. D. Bishop, of Connecticut, as Commissioner of Patents; Francis H. Price, of New York, Consul General at Havana; Robt. L. Matthews, of Illinois, Consul at Valencia; and Luther E. Webb, as Superintendent of Indian Affairs for New Mexico.

The Committee on Freedmen's Affairs have instructed their Chairman to report a bill continuing the Bureau one year after the first of July next. The bill authorizes the Secretary of War to discontinue its operations in any State fully restored in its constitutional relations with the Government, and represented in Congress, unless such continuance in such State shall be deemed necessary.

The Senate's Committee on Foreign Relations decided to-day to recommend a ratification of the Reciprocity Treaty with the Sandwich Islands, and the nomination of S. S. Cox as Minister to Austria.

The Secretary of the Interior has sent to the Finance Committee the draft of a joint resolution, which he says differs in one particular from the joint resolution of 1845. The latter directed the detention by the Secretary of the Treasury of all monies due to a defaulting State, on account of per centage of the proceeds of public lands lying within the points of this resolution. This makes it his duty to withdraw from such State any monies due such State from the United States on any account whatever. The Interior Department is the depository of a large amount which the United States holds in trust for certain Indian tribes, the annually accruing interest for many years, paid by the respective States, but was originally advanced by Congress from the Treasury.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

JANUARY 25.—In the Senate, Mr. Eckel wants the Treasurer of the State paid in coin or its equivalent. This is a neat way of whipping the devil around the stump. We want no such Radical finesse or finances. What is good enough for the people is good enough for a Radical office-holder. The bill passed first reading.

The following passed the third reading: An act to correct a clerical error in the charter of the Tennessee and Pacific railroad, reducing the number of shares from 120,000 to 12,000.

An act to refund certain taxes which have been wrongfully collected under a misapprehension of the law.

The bill to dispense with the printing of private bills was lost.

In the House the following bills were read and referred:

To regulate the publication of legal notices, and mode of proving publication.

To increase the State and county revenue.

To define and protect the rights of loyal citizens of this State.

To regulate the collection of revenue, and for other purposes.

Mr. Moore moved to take up the motion to reconsider the vote upon House bill No. 104, changing the place of holding the sessions of the Supreme Court for West Tennessee. The motion prevailed, and the House refused to reconsider.

The resolution to investigate the affairs and condition of the State Bank of Tennessee, was referred to joint special committee.

The bill creating a Board of Commissioners for Madison county, and extending similar provisions to Montgomery, White and Putnam, passed its third reading—60 to 5.

The bill to establish the county of Railroad was lost on the second reading.

A bill to repeal the act to restrict the navigation of Big Hatchie river was lost.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY
PUBLISHED BY THE MASONIC PUBLISHING
—AND—
MANUFACTURING COMPANY,
432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. 8vo. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro. Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

Copies of the above for the Memphis Brethren are ready for delivery at the Editorial Rooms of the APPEAL, 14 Jefferson street, upstairs. jan29 1w

SENT BACK.—Joe Behr, charged with obtaining twenty thousand dollars worth of goods from merchants at Mound City was sent back yesterday as per requisition.

MISSED IT.—John Scott (not the favorite Scotty) tried to leave the chain-gang yesterday, but was caught and brought back. His term of service will likely be doubled.

OUT ON BONDS.—One of the numerous family of Smiths, surnamed James, who was charged with a breach of trust and sent up in default of one thousand dollars bond, gave the necessary security yesterday.

MULE THIEF CAUGHT.—A mule thief, named Henry Calloway, was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing two mules. He was sent by Esquire Moore to the Contempt Court for trial.

RUN OVER.—Between one and two o'clock yesterday evening the child of Mrs. Wheelen was run over on Hernando street. The fifth rib was broken and medical aid called in. The sufferer will recover.

TO BE EXAMINED.—Thos. Cosgrove, charged with the murder of Tom. Malone, was before Justice Moore yesterday. Some witnesses were examined, but no decision given. The examination will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock.

AT WORK.—Mr. William Walsh, who resides at No. 13 Market street, received a visit from the stock thieves yesterday. The consequence was that a mule and horse were stolen, the pair being valued at five hundred dollars.

CHURCH CONFERENCE.—The regular monthly conference of the First Baptist Church takes place to-night at 7½ o'clock in the basement of the Church. A full attendance of the membership is desired, as business of much importance will be brought before the Church.

NO BUSINESS.—Mr. Justice Miller proposes to give his exclusive attention to the practice of law, and will get rid of his criminal business as speedily as possible. The papers and records of Justice Creighton's Court may be found at Squire Miller's office, corner Washington and Main street.

CAPTAIN JACK.—We are glad to find that our gallant young friend, Capt. Jack Horne, who was formerly connected with the house of Wormely, Joy & Co., is now in the steamboat business. His many friends may find him at the office of Levy & Miller, Jefferson street.

A NICE FOUR.—Andrew Jackson, Willis Spencer, Freeman X and Silas Martin, of the colored persuasion, were arrested yesterday charged with stealing iron castings from Griffin's mill, near the old gas works. They will probably come before Justice Miller to-day for examination.

ROBBING AN EMPLOYER.—Some few days since a planter visited the city in search of help and hired five black and tan citizens to work on the farm. Geo. Murray, one of the engaged, was arrested yesterday charged with stealing the provisions of his employer. He will probably come before a justice of the peace to day.

Business, Visiting and Wedding Cards Printed at the Lowest Prices at the Appeal Job Office.

SENT UP.—James H. Wasder, the particulars of whose case we published yesterday morning, was before Mr. Justice Hall yesterday, and, after a careful examination, was sent up to the Criminal Court. If straw bail is kept out of the way, James will probably visit the capital.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was one of the brightest days of the season. The snow has disappeared, and old Sol continues to shed his genial rays. The streets were filled with vehicles containing the youth, beauty and fashion of the city. If we are to believe the river editors, the levee is scarcely navigable just now.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street and 393 Main street, have received Dime Illustrated, Last Sensation, New York Citizen, Wilkes' Spirit, Comic Monthly, Waverly Magazine, Police News, Police Gazette, Harpers' Weekly, Frank Leslie, Saturday Night, Southern Society, and all the magazines for February. London Art Journal for January, and dailies from everywhere; also a lot of Valentines. Call and take a look at them. Emmons & Son's is the place to get what you want.

ROBBERY ON THE PIGEON ROOST ROAD.—Several wagons loaded with plantation supplies and belonging to a Mr. Malerbs Jones, of Marshall county, Miss., were robbed yesterday afternoon about five miles from this city on the Pigeon Roost road. They appropriated about fifty dollars worth of goods, when they decamped. Mr. Jones gave chase to the scoundrels, and succeeded in overtaking and capturing them, bringing them safely back to the city. An example should have been made of them.

Bill Heads Printed at the Lowest Prices at the Appeal Job Office.

PERSONAL.—Among the arrivals at the Overton Hotel last evening, from the South, were Oliver Ellsworth, Esq., one of the most popular conductors on the New Orleans and Jackson railroad, and his lovely bride. Mr. Ellsworth was married on the 27th inst., at Canton, Miss., by the Rev. Mr. Andrews, at the residence of the bride's mother, to Miss Mary Ellen Leonard, and they started by the next train on a wedding tour North. We wish the happy couple all the bliss that happiness can bring them. There are few men who have made so many friends as Mr. Ellsworth; courteous, genial and accomodating, no one ever traveled with him but wanted to do so again. The prize he has won in gaining such a lovely, talented and amiable wife is but the just due to a good and true man. We wish the happy couple a long life of bliss and prosperity, and trust their train will keep on a smooth road until the conductor lands safely in the port of everlasting felicity.

A FAMILY DIFFICULTY.

Shooting With Intent to Kill

A Father Attempts to Take the Life of His Son.

One of those distressing shooting affairs which recently have become altogether too common in our midst, occurred yesterday about two and a half miles from town. The facts are in brief as follows: A difficulty took place between E. H. Dashiel and his son Tom. Words ran high and pistols were drawn, when the father shot the son in the left breast. The accused is now in the Adams street stationhouse on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. The life of the young man is despaired of.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The Opera of Martha was most acceptably represented last evening, the whole troupe making a favorable impression upon a brilliant audience that almost amounted to enthusiasm. The chorus was rather slender, and there was some sharpness in the vocalism at times that were not strikingly pleasing to a nice ear, but it did not occur in the full, round tones of Frederici, who appeared as "Nancy." "The Last Rose of Summer," by Miss Lang, would have been encored, but the progress of the scene prevented the expression of applause from culminating. Mr. Weinlich might have given two verses of the drinking song without at all wearying the audience, many of whom had heard our friend Sabatsky sing it so cleverly at the concert on Monday evening. Lotti sang sweetly and with expression. His song in the opening of the third act was encored, but he acknowledged the compliment with a bow. The hunting song of "Nancy" was magnificently sung, and its repetition being called for, Marie Frederici repeated a stanza gracefully and with brilliant effect. Taken altogether, the opera was most agreeably rendered, and our citizens seemed exceedingly gratified. This evening Gounod's grand opera of Faust will be presented with other candidates for applause to appear, although the graceful and pleasing Frederici will be the "Marguerite." It will insure a brilliant assemblage in the auditorium. On Monday next Mr. Forrest will commence an engagement of five nights only, during which he will produce his two great characters of "Spartacus" and "Metamora." The sale of tickets will commence on Thursday.

THE VARIETIES.—The company at this theater gives universal satisfaction, and draw crowded houses nightly. Lizzie Wheeler and Helen Devere never fail to please, while the splendid acting of Johnny Hart and Oscar Willis, together with the singing of Tony Benton, always gives satisfaction.

BOOKS.

THE DOOMED RACE.—Those who delight in speculative reading, and in what is new and striking in literature and theology, will find matter to interest them in a poem just presented to the reading public, and on sale by Cowperthwait, Chapman & Co., Main street. It is entitled the "Doomed Race; or, the Craft Before the Flood"—is gotten up in superior style and large, luminous type, and develops a new and attractive theory respecting the Ethiop, and his status in the divine estimation. As a poem, it is soft and flowing in its versification, and marked by originality of thought and beauty of expression. Though it carries us back into a dim and shadowy age, it is neither mythical in its forms nor mono-theistic in its complexion, but is a vivid panorama of life before the deluge; and not only sheds light upon questions which have seemed dubious to the philosophic and the devout student, but establishes the integrity of Masonry, and presents an altar around which men of all sects and parties may gather, and offer homage to the One Infinite, Tri-personal and Almighty Father. It abounds in glowing word pictures of antideluvian scenes and the great men and women who figure in Genesis. The work is founded upon the facts recorded in Genesis, and develops Ancient Craft Masonry in a manner that can not fail to interest and delight the friends of Esoteric science. After developing the symbolism connected with the primtive worship, and the rise of Craft Masonry, he pictures Naamah as a vestal at the shrine of Sol, beneath whose temple the Sethic craftmen have their secret chambers. Ham being attracted to Naamah, wins her heart and bears her to the mystic vault, and then to the ark in the westland; but the taint which God intended to wipe out by the flood inheres in the nature of the Cainite vestal, outworks itself in her seed, and the mark or blackness affixed upon Cain, reappears in Ham's children by Naamah. The intent of the author is to justify the craft in refusing fellowship with Sambo, and to discourage miscegenesis.

COUNT MIRABEAU; an Historical Novel, by Theodore Mundt. New York. D. Appleton & Co.

A most remarkable volume, covering a period of history fraught with much tragic interest—the French Revolution—the wonderful and almost demoniac characters who figured in that eventful time. Theodore Mundt, the husband of Louisa Muhlbach, possesses in a strong degree the great characteristics of his wife. No one should be without a copy of Count Mirabeau. For sale by Cowperthwait, Chapman & Co., No. 279½ Main street.

A STORMY LIFE. New York, D. Appleton & Co. Memphis, Cowperthwait, Chapman & Co., No. 279½ Main street.

A charming story, from the pen of Lady Georgiana Fullerton. The plot is most excellently conceived and the characters well sustained. We advise a perusal of its pages.

THE LEWIS FACTION CHECKMATED. The attempt to head off Col. Beaumont by the Lewis wing of the Radicals who went to Nashville for that purpose, has most signally failed. We understood last evening that a dispatch had been received in the city, stating that the whole effort was a failure, and that Beaumont had triumphed over those who had conspired to throw him aside.

TO THE COUNTRY FRIENDS OF THE APPEAL.—We take pleasure in informing our country friends that we now have a complete Job Office, and are prepared to execute all kinds of Job Printing in a style unsurpassed by any Job Office in the Southwest, and at the most reasonable rates. Constitutions and By-Laws of Lodges and Societies, Catalogues, Country Store Bills, Blanks for County Officers printed at the shortest notice, and satisfaction guaranteed in every particular.

HARD ON BRICKS.—The editor of the Corry (Penn.) Republican, who claims to be personally acquainted with Brick Pomeroy, gives his readers the extracts from the La Crosse Democrat on Gen. Sherman and the clergy, which he culled some time ago, and then proceeds to paint "Brick" thus:

The author of the above outrage was born minus the moral attributes of a manly character. He is a thief, liar, drunkard and wife-beater, to our personal knowledge. We have known him to beat his wife and children unmercifully without the show of provocation, and forbid the merchants to trust them for the necessaries of life while carousing in dens of prostitution. And such a thing the leader of the Democratic party! We have known him to sing bawdy songs and crack obscene jokes over the dead remains of his friend and companion who was strangled to death in an attempt to drink a gallon of whisky on a wager, in the city of Milwaukee. And we have heard him curse the sun and defy the power that sustained it. We could chronicle a thousand other instances, but it is useless, as the extract we present delineates the moral degradation of the wretch better than we are able to do.

When will the gay and festive, illustrious highfalutin, visit Memphis again, or write another morning letter in reply to the libellous spoon thief?

MISSISSIPPI COUNTY, ARK.

Democratic Conservative Convention.

In response to the suggestion of the Central Committee of Little Rock, the Conservatives of Mississippi county met at Osceola January 18th, 1868, in a county Convention.

The meeting was well represented, and great interest manifested in the proceedings, showing evidently that the citizens of Mississippi county are at last awakening from the lethargy which has held the leading men back heretofore.

The Convention was called to order by James H. Williams, on whose motion James B. Hart, Esq., was called to the chair. Capt. W. W. Sawyer, in a few proper and telling remarks, explained the object of the Convention. On motion of Capt. W. W. Sawyer, R. G. Hardin was appointed secretary.

A committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, consisting of the following gentlemen: Stephen Cooke, C. L. Moore, Charles Bowen, J. H. Hazard and J. E. Harding.

On the withdrawal of the Committee, Capt. H. M. McVeigh was called to the stand, and in a very forcible and excellent impromptu speech pointed out the dangers of longer inactivity, and eloquently requested every citizen and true friend of a white man's government to be ready and go to work.

The Committee returned with the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the people of Mississippi county, in convention assembled, having experienced for the last three years in our persons and property, the unmitigated curse of an irresponsible despotism fastened upon us by the agency of the Radical party, and believing that the time has at length arrived when we can with perfect freedom and confidence assert our indefeasible right to the full benefit of a free Constitution, are therefore,

Resolved, That we will, to the utmost of our power, most heartily co-operate with and support the principles of the Democratic party North and South, believing as we do that the only object aimed at by that party is, first, to defeat the scheme of vengeance and oppression against our unhappy section already inaugurated and yet in contemplation by the lawless faction now in Congress; and secondly, to restore the Constitution of our fathers to the Government of a united country.

Resolved, That by a determined and persevering, though temperate and conciliatory use of the advantages of justice and fair argument, we will endeavor to restore our State to her proper place in the Union, not with the degrading badge of inferiority stamped upon her, but as the peer and equal of any other State. Especially are we resolved to put forth all our strength against all schemes looking to the readmission of our State upon any other basis but that of justice and perfect political freedom for the white citizen thereof, being firmly persuaded that our being white, instead of a disability, is a decided advantage to us.

Resolved, That in calling upon the people of our country generally to array themselves against Radicals, we think it requires no persuasion of argument, but simply the evidence of their own senses to convince them that both interest and duty calls upon them to act. They live in a community which has been peculiarly cursed by this political pestilence—a pestilence which has blasted their fortunes, their energies, hopes, and caused them almost to doubt the justice of Heaven.

Resolved, That in the event of the so-called State Convention, now in session at Little Rock, framing a constitution adverse to the true interests and honor of the white citizens of the State, or accept the proposed constitutional amendment, or countenance directly or indirectly the barbarous idea of negro equality, we pledge ourselves to vote as one man against so monstrous a villainy.

Resolved, That we consider the action of the Radical Congress in disfranchising such a number of our fellow-citizens in the South, amongst whom are the brightest characters of our section, as being in the last degree base, tyrannical and totally inconsistent with the spirit of republican freedom, and intended to serve no other end than that of giving the negro a decided majority over the whites.

Resolved, That we will at all times recognize every right which the freedman has acquired to liberty and the undisputed control over his own notions; provided they be not in conflict with the well being and safety of society. But we think this is a white man's Government, and therefore are not only opposed to negro equality, but negro suffrage.

Resolved, That the present officers of this Convention, be, and are hereby permanently appointed, giving them power at any time that they may deem necessary, to call the Convention together.

Resolved, That we will send a copy of these resolutions and the proceedings of this meeting to the Campaign Gazette at Little Rock, the Memphis APPEAL and the Lacrosse Democrat, with the request that they publish them.

There being no further business, on motion of W. W. Sawyer, the Convention adjourned until the third Saturday in next month, or until called together by the Chairman.

AN OUTRAGE.—After the conclusion of the Concert on Monday evening, while Mr. Leo. Wheat was engaged in conversing with some ladies, he was abruptly accosted by a policeman, who slapped him on the shoulder, and rudely demanded the payment of $50, or the alternative of a night in the stationhouse. No explanation preceded the demand, and when conceded, it appeared that the citizens who had invited Mr. Wheat to repeat his concert, had neglected to take out license. As they had relieved him of the trouble of securing the house and making all other engagements, it was quite natural that he should infer the license had also been attended to. As Mr. Wheat is a citizen of the highest respectability, the proceeding of the officer was, to say the least, outrageous, and deserves the severest censure, if one who so little knows his duty do not deserve dismissal.

IMPORTANT TO CLAIMANTS.—Having learned from the numerous applications made to us for the collection of claims by individuals in all parts of the country that there are a great many persons who have claims which are lying perdue for the want of information on the subject, we beg to announce that the Government of the United States has been for nearly five years past paying claims through this office at the rate of many thousands of dollars monthly, and in order to secure justice to all parties, we suggest that all who have not done so, make a full and plain statement (not an affidavit) of their claim, and of the amount to which they deem themselves entitled, and forward the same to this office at once, so as to enable us to perfect and present the same to the department to which it appertains.

Ours is the oldest established Claim Agency in the Southern States, and since commencing business in this city in 1862, we have taken claims in every State and Territory in the United States and in almost every county and parish from the Ohio river to the Gulf of Mexico.

Our reputation for energy and promptitude coupled with the corps of efficient and talented clerks in our employ, furnishes guarantee for a faithful attention to all business entrusted to us.

We have already collected, under the various acts of Congress, in bounties alone, to amount of nearly a million dollars.

We make liberal advances to parties giving us their claims for collection.

The following classes of claims are prosecuted to settlement by us without delay:

Arrears of pay and bounty to soldiers (white or colored) or their heirs.

Pensions for above (invalids or otherwise.) Arrears due pensioners through all grades of legitimate succession.

Claims of officers for arrears of pay; for mileage when traveling under orders without transportation.

For commutation of fuel and quarters not furnished in kind.

Accounts of Assistant Quartermasters and Commissaries.

Prize money and naval bounty.

Pay due officers and sailors for loss of clothing.

Commutation of rations due prisoners of war or their heirs.

Pensions for officers and men of the navy or their heirs.

Arrears of pay due sailors and marines, white or colored, and their heirs.

Claims for salvage.

Claims of loyal citizens.

For value of horses, mules, forage, corn, wood and timber, and all other quartermaster stores.

For value of cattle, bacon, wheat, vegetables, and all other Commissary stores.

For rent of buildings or land, or for damage to the same, while occupied for military purposes, or other Government uses.

For use of transports, steamboats, tugs and barges, or for loss of or damage to the same, while being used for Government purposes.

Claims of every nature against the Government, coming within the jurisdiction of any of the Departments, or Court of Claims in Washington, and Supreme Courts of the United States, receive prompt and faithful attention on reasonable terms.

We require no advance fees, and our charges to correspondents are merely nominal.

Counsel for petitioner asked that he be not removed from the State until they had time to procure from the Supreme Court a supercedeas, which application was refused. Attorneys are requested to notice the "rules of court," posted up in the court room, as these rules will be strictly enforced and carried out by the Court.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

Yesterday was a clear, cool day, with some appearance of snow late in the day. The river at this point came to a stand on Monday night, and was rising yesterday. It had swollen about five inches at dark last night. The Arkansas was rising on the 25th very slowly, with four feet to the mouth. There was a rise at Jacksonport, on White river, Saturday last, of four inches, but no change at Augusta when the Commercial left. The latest telegraphic news from the Ohio reports that stream still rising at Louisville. The Enquirer of Monday says the ice gorge at Wheeling was moving, leaving wharfboat and steamers aground, and ten feet and falling; Marietta—five feet nine inches and falling; Parkersburg—three feet and rising; Pomeroy—rising; Gallipolis—Ohio and Kanawha rising; here, it has risen six inches during the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p.m. yesterday, with eighteen feet in the channel by the water-works' mark, and eighty four feet under the Covington bridge for passing steamers. The Cumberland is again falling. The position of affairs between Cairo and St. Louis are much the same as our last.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Empire is loading at Cairo for this port, and will be due to night or to-morrow.

By the breaking of a gorge at Wheeling on Sunday, the steamers Rebecca and Glendale were left hard aground.

The Commercial left last evening with a good passenger trip for White river.

The Eau Claire was not injured in Hatchie, as reported. She left last night for that stream, and will hereafter make semi-weekly trips. There will not be over 10,000 bales of cotton come out of that stream.

Capt. George Bligh, who has been confined to his room for some days, was out again yesterday.

Capt. Tom Berry was so far recovered yesterday from his late injuries as to be removed from the boat to his hotel.

Several of our steamboat agents are on the wing northwards.

That veteran steamboat master and popular gentleman, Capt. Joe Phelps, came up on the Quitman yesterday. He looks young as a four year old, and we hope to see him ere long on the roof of some clipper ship in the Memphis and New Orleans trade.

The Last Chance is running in the Arkansas from the mouth to Pine Bluff. On her last trip out she brought 500 bales of reshipping cotton for New Orleans and discharged at Napoleon.

The P. W. Strader, Capt. Alf. Stien, leaves at 5 p.m. to day for New Orleans and way points.

The Tempest, Capt. J. Shultz, will be in port to-day to leave for all points on White river to Jacksonport.

The Laurel Hill, Capt. Twomey, did not get away last night for Louisville, but will positively leave to-day at 4 p.m. She has room for 1000 bales of cotton in addition to what she now has on board.

The Des Arc leaves on her regular day, Thursday, for Jacksonport and way points. Capt. John Elliott commands, and Messrs. Miller, Hawks and Glass are clerks.

The splendid Quitman came in from below yesterday. She had a good trip up. Capt. J. M. White commands. Mr. T. J. Howard and Oscar Benedict are her clerks, while her table is still under the watchful eye of ye immortal Smith. She leaves on Thursday for New Orleans.

A gentleman in attempting to get aboard the steamer Mist at Selma, on the Alabama river a few days ago, fell from the gang plank into the river and lost a carpet sack containing $1200.

One of the largest barge loads of wood ever brought to Memphis came in yesterday from the woodyard of our friend Charlie Morris, and landed at our levee. The barge contained about 300 cords of the finest ash and oak wood, and is for sale by Messrs. Bigley & Mellersh, the well known coal dealers.

The Tennessee, Capt. J. B. Hall, came in from Cairo yesterday loaded to the guards with corn, live stock and dressed hogs. She leaves to-day at 5 p.m on her return trip and makes all way landings.

The new steamer Dexter, Capt. Montgomery, passes down to-day for New Orleans at 5 p.m.

The Argonaut, Capt Everhart, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and Louisville.

The Mollie Hambleton laid over until 10 a.m. to-day. She backs out at that hour for the St. Francis river. Tom. Bowman is master. Paine, Clark and Shell are clerks.

The Emerald, which our New Orleans dispatches of yesterday reported sunk at Tunica Bend, was an old boat, of the Cincinnati species, and was bound from New Orleans to that port.

Our steamboat friends are requested to remember that the APPEAL Job Office is now in operation, and work of all kinds is being turned out, which will compare favorably with that of any office in the West, and at the lowest rates.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, Memphis, January 28, 1868.

The money market for the week has been very quiet. Currency has been more abundant at our banks, but there is no relaxation whatever in the scrutiny with which our discount houses look into business paper when offered, which is, however, a matter of rare occurrence. Cotton bills are offered very freely, and are taken at ½ to ⅜c discount on New York and outside points East, while New Orleans sight is taken at ¼ to ⅜c discount. The checking rate is par on all points, with exceptions only on New Orleans, which is held at ⅛c premium with but a light demand.

The political aspect of affairs during the week has kept the New York gold room in a state of excitement, and as that market was sold "short," the premium ran up during the week to 141⅝c in the general rush to cover sales. This market has been quiet, and transactions light. There is no counter demand, and dealers are consequently compelled to keep a large shipping margin on Eastern quotations. The New York market to-day opened at 141⅛c, and at noon had advanced ⅛c. Brokers buy at 138⅜c to 139c.

City Scrip has steadily advanced during the week, under a strong speculative demand, which is participated in by outsiders as well as regular dealers. Among the sales to-day we note that of $1500, between dealers, at 48c, but the counter rates are 49 to 50c, selling.

The market for County Warrants is very much depressed. There seems to be a general impression that there has been a large over issue, and dealers are very shy of it. There is no quotable buying rate, but brokers are selling at 64 to 65c.

Police Scrip is in demand at 82 to 83c, buying; selling at 88 to 90c.

Our last Cotton review closed with buyers offering 15 to 15½c for Middlings. The week opened with Uplands in Liverpool, 8⅝d, Orleans 7⅞d to 8d, while the New York market was heavy at unchanged quotations. The former market was active on Thursday, and prices advanced ⅛d on all grades. New York responded by an advance to 17¼ to 17½c for Middlings, and our market became active and closed with a tendency to better prices. This feeling in the Eastern markets continued on the following day, and prices in New York again advanced, Middlings closing at 17¾ to 17⅞c, while our market was excited at 16½ to 16¾c. On Saturday the Liverpool market was active throughout, and closed at full figures, Uplands 7¾ to 7⅞d, Orleans 8 to 8⅛d. Middlings on this day in New York closed with an upward tendency; Middlings, 18 to 18⅛c; Orleans, 18¾ to 19c. There was no change on Monday, and our market closed firm at 17 to 17½c. The Liverpool market at the opening to-day was active at unchanged quotations, and at noon was nominally unchanged. It closed the same, with sales for the day, 12,000 bales. The demand in New York at the opening was moderate and prices firm. At the close the demand was fair at lower prices, though quotations were unchanged. Sales for the day, 1000 bales. The difficulty of shipping at New York, in consequence of the scarcity of tonnage, has a depressing effect on that market, as is shown by the difference in the tone of dispatches received from that market when compared with those of Liverpool. The stock in this market for the week has accumulated, partly caused by the bad weather during the week, and partly owing to the fact that our market has advanced so rapidly that there is no margin between this and the New York market which would justify transactions. Many spinners have withheld orders, because they can buy at lower rates elsewhere. This is especially the case in fine cottons, which are scarce here and elsewhere. To-day the market was firm but very quiet. Holders were asking yesterday's figures, while buyers were unable to reach their views. We quote nominally as follows:

Stained	13¾@15
Ordinary	14 @14½
Good Ordinary	15 @15½
Low Middling	16 @16½

Wholesale Market.

The general markets show some improvement over last week. The Dry Goods market has been much better, and we hope that the reaction which is setting in may be of more than a temporary character. Our merchants, during the past year, have lost heavily in the shrinkage of values, and but few of them, we fear, will be in condition to enter upon the coming spring business with such stocks as they had in former years. Buyers have not been able or anxious to lay in supplies, and have deferred purchasing until the last moment, hoping that prices would continue to fall, but we are impressed with the belief that staple goods reached bottom a few weeks ago, and will again advance. Prints, brown and white domestics, have stiffened up fully 1c per yard since our last weekly issue, and prices are tending up. During the last two years the immense supply of foreign fabrics has doubtless aided very materially in depressing the prices of domestic goods. Thus far, the receipts in New York for the spring trade have been only about half the amount of those for the corresponding season of last year, and importers show considerable confidence in being able to realize satisfactory prices. It is not impossible that the later importations may show an important increase; but these will come to hand too late to affect the first and best half of the season's trade. Upon the whole, then, the prospect seems to promise a moderate, steady and fairly remunerative business; which, in the present unsettled state of affairs, is quite as much as could be reasonably expected, and more than has been realized for the last two years.

The wholesale Boot and Shoe market, though better for the past two or three days, has given way, and prices are from 5 to 10 per cent lower than last week. The stocks on hand, though low, are well assorted, and preparations are being made to receive large and attractive supplies for the spring trade. In order to do this, heavy staple goods are offered at very low figures. Eastern manufacturers expect to commence active operations next month, and in the meantime there is little doing, though prices have not declined there as they have here.

The advance in the gold premium has caused a little more firmness in Coffee and Sugar, but prices are not quotably higher than last week, and stocks are about the same, with a fair demand. Mess Pork has been scarce, but the demand was light; round lots on the levee and at the depot are held at our quotations. Bulk meats are firm and stock large, with an increasing demand. Corn has been scarce but receipts have been large for the last few days; several thousand bushels on flatboat in shuck, is offered at 75c. Oats are firm, while Hay is dull. Poultry is more abundant. Lard is firm but the demand is light. Dressed hogs are in large supply, and sell readily at our quotations. Game of all kinds has been scarce for the week. The stock market is well supplied, and choice beeves are in good demand, but inferior are not sought after. The demand for horses and mules will be very light this season, and prices obtained are not satisfactory.

GRAND SPECIAL SCHEME

—OF THE—

RALEIGH MINERAL SPRINGS,

TO BE DRAWN ON OR ABOUT

February 15, 1868,

Under the direct auspices of the following well known Citizens of Memphis:

DIRECTORS.

N. CORONNA, Pres't German National Bank; JOHN S. TOOF, of Toof, Phillips & Co.; W. L. STEWART, late of W. L. Stewart Bros.; ROLFE S. SAUNDERS, U. S. Collector; R. R. PITTMAN, of R. R. Pittman & Co.; GEO. H. LEGUERE, of Ward & Leguere.

N. CORONNA, Treasurer.

DEPOSITORY...German National Bank

F. Y. ROCKETT...Financial Secretary.

$34,500 IN PREMIUMS.

NUMBER of PRIZES, 25.

CERTIFICATES, $5 EACH.

A Fortune or a Homestead for $5.

CAPITAL PRIZE VALUED AT $20,000 00.

Which amount has recently been offered for the Springs and Grounds immediately surrounding.

PRIZE NO. 1.

The celebrated Raleigh Mineral Springs, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late County Seat of Shelby county, Tenn., nine miles north-east of Memphis, and two miles from Wolf's Station, on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad. These Springs are six in number, of various mineral and medicinal qualities, and are visited every Summer by thousands seekers of health and pleasure, from all quarters of the country. They are within a few steps of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and also within a few hundred feet of Wolf river, which winds around the base of the eminence on which the village of Raleigh is situated, and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. Numerous remarkable cures of various diseases have been experienced by sojourners at this health-inspiring retreat, and the present proprietor, Col. J. M. Coleman, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures in cases which had been entirely given over by medical skill. The ground surrounding the Springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh, rises to an eminence of pure air, and is as remarkable for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The Springs are in fine order, never failing, and are designated as follows:

MARBLE SPRING,
BOX SPRING,
MAGNOLIA SPRING,
ARSENIC SPRING,
SULPHUR SPRING,
FREESTONE SPRING.

The place has never been visited by epidemic of any kind, and peculiarly characteristic of its healthfulness is the longevity of the inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The Springs are as much resorted to by pleasure seekers as by invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and various artificial as well as natural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bowling Alley, Rustic Arbors, Reading Saloon, Gents' Bowling Alley, Saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasium, Refreshment Tables, etc., while Wolf river affords excellent Boating and Fishing.

The ground accompanying the Springs, in the above scheme and included in the First Prize, is fifteen acres in extent, overlooking the valley and affords in addition to a magnificent site for a grand hotel and other buildings; splendid facilities for a park, promenades, etc.

An analysis of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shows that they are unsurpassed in mineral and curative properties by any in the United States. There is no reason then why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and as largely patronized. It needs only capital and enterprise to accomplish this end.

A charter is before the State Legislature for the incorporation of the Springs, and a movement has been inaugurated looking to direct rail communication with Memphis.

For this prize, $20,000 was recently offered, which was declined in order that the above scheme may be fully carried out.

PRIZE NO 2.

The elegant country mansion house and lot residence of Col. J. M. Coleman is within a few yards of the Springs. The house is in fine order, contains 10 rooms and is beautifully embowered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced and ornamented with fine shade and fruit trees, and also all necessary outhouses, cisterns, etc. It is midway between the village and Spring Valley, on the main promenade. Value $8000.

PRIZE NO. 3.

One thousand dollars in cash.

PRIZE NO. 4 TO 25.

Twenty-two cottage lots valued at $250 each. These lots are a portion of the village of Raleigh, delightfully situated, all fronting on thoroughfares and will be drawn with the understanding that the winners shall have free access at all times to the Springs and belongings.

Details of the Drawing.

Six thousand and seven hundred tickets, representing the certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel, and the same number of blanks, including twenty five inscribed with the names of the premiums, will be placed in another. From these wheels tickets will be drawn at the same time, and the number drawn will take the premium drawn simultaneously.

All moneys received upon the sale of these shares will be placed in the German National Bank of Memphis, and will remain there to the credit of the Association until the drawing takes place.

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

Cat-Gut Cushion,

Manufactured by KAVANAUGH & DECKER, and patented December 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 1.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the tables. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.

The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.

Cavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

Full size Tables cut down for $100.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 dawly

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL [redacted]

FOR 1868.

ALBERT PIK[redacted]

EDITOR.

JNO. AINSLI[redacted]

Cashier and Business Manager.

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL, NOW IN [redacted] Twenty-Ninth Year, is offered to the rea[redacted] public of Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas [redacted] Alabama, it is believed, with superior indu[redacted] ments to any that have ever been p[redacted] sented to its numerous and rapidly [redacted] creasing patrons. The stagnation in fina[redacted] cial movements, the almost total cessation [redacted] trade, the paralysis in agricultural operatio[redacted] and the anomalous condition of politic[redacted] affairs, instead of counselling to inaction a[redacted] discouraging enterprise and energy, shou[redacted] arouse our people to redouble their exertion[redacted] to extend their enterprise, and to rely w[redacted] greater confidence and higher resolve up[redacted] their own indomitable and unquenchab[redacted] courage and purpose. If there ever was a tim[redacted] when the people should be

Fully Aroused and Wide Awake,

It is in such an emergency as the present. The temptation is strong to despair, and to surrender to the influence of fear and an almost overwhelming oppression. If we listen to the voice of the Siren and give up to despair, we are lost—irrecoverably lost. It behooves one and all to be up and doing, "with a heart for every fate, still achieving, still pursuing," until the book of our destiny shall be closed. We should hear of no compromise to make with the opposing genius of decay and destruction, which is seeking to drag us down. We should meet the enemy at every stage and wage an aggressive warfare upon him, until we expel him from the land. Poverty comes upon our beloved land and upon our patriotic people "like an armed man." Like "an armed man" we must assail him—with the same will, determination and courage with which he marches upon our homes and hearthstones. In such an emergency,

THE NEWSPAPER

Is the great and potent weapon with which we must carry on the campaign. We might as well at once surrender to the foe as to abandon this agency, which is, in fact, the artillery arm, both for defense and attack, in such a warfare. This great moral and political agent can only be rendered efficient and successful with the countenance, support and material assistance of the people. Never was there so cheap an aid employed to defend the right and to crush the oppressor. A people who are not willing to sustain an auxiliary which may be so potently used to defend their rights, and which can be employed at so inconsiderable an expense, are in the last stage of decrepitude and decline. And so an individual, who may be

FOUND TO DECRY THE PRESS,

Which in all free governments is known to be the most powerful lever, in the service of good government, must be either too imbecile for a freeman or too corrupt to receive the confidence and respect of his countrymen. It therefore happens that the people who sustain the Press with the greatest liberality and who rely upon its free utterance, with the highest confidence in its power to elicit the truth and defend the right, are always the freest and most independent people.

As she sits or stands, with golden bands,
And lace in beautiful filagrees.
Bless the doll, you may press the doll,
But do not crumple or muss the doll;
This is the way we dress the doll.

Now these are the bodies—she has two,
One of pink, with ruches of blue,
And sweet white lace—be careful, do!
And one of green, with buttons sheen,
Buttons and bands of gold, I ween,
With lace on the border, in lovely order,
The most expensive we can afford her.
Bless the doll, you may press the doll,
But do not crumple or muss the doll;
This is the way we dress the doll.

Then with the black-at-the-border jacket;
And this—and this—she will not lack it;
Skirts! Why, there are skirts, of course,
And shoes and stockings we shall enforce,
With a proper bodice, in the proper place
(Stays which lace have had their days
And made their martyrs;) likewise gaiters,
All entire. But our desire
Is to show you her night attire—
At least a part of it. Pray admire
This sweet white thing that she goes to bed in!
It's not the one that's made for her wedding;
That is special, a new design,
Made with a charm and a countersign.
Bless the doll, you may press the doll,
But do not crumple or muss the doll;
This is the way we dress the doll.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

CHARLESTON, January 28.—The Finance Committee of the Convention recommends a per diem of nine dollars, and twenty cents mileage, payable in bills receivable by the State.

A son of Collector Mackey, President of the Convention, assaulted the reporter of the Mercury, on account of an abusive article in the Mercury.

HAVANA, January 28.—The famous Mexican Imperialist, Gen. Marquez, has arrived here. Romero has accepted the Secretaryship of the Treasury of Mexico. The Captain General of Cuba assures Juarez that Santa Anna will not be permitted to undertake any fillibustering expedition.

MONTGOMERY, January 28.—General Hayden has issued an order requiring polls at the next election to be opened at three precincts in each county, and remain open four days.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., January 28.—Attorney General Jones has furnished Gov. Swann with an opinion directly conflicting with the decision made by Chief Justice Chase in the Circuit Court in the October term. The Attorney General says the civil rights law is unconstitutional; that the negro apprenticeship laws of Maryland are constitutional, and the United States Circuit Court had no jurisdiction whatever in the case on which Chief Justice Chase gave a decision, declaring the apprenticeship of colored children under the laws of Maryland slavery or involuntary servitude, in violation of the thirteenth amendment, and was therefore null and void, and returning them all to the custody of their parents.

LONDON, January 28.—It is now asserted that a new French loan of 75,000,000 francs will soon be placed in market.

EDINBURG, January 28.—There has been a heavy gale in Southern Scotland, doing much damage. The shipping suffered terribly.

LONDON, January 27.—The prisoner Burke denies any knowledge of the conspiracy to blow up Clarkenwell prison.

Paris letters say the new army bill is very unpopular.

Sir Cutting Early's trial for bigamy is concluded. The jury found him guilty, and the court sentenced him to eighteen months hard labor.

The bark Wapella, from New Orleans to Liverpool, was totally wrecked on the English coast; only three of the crew and one woman was saved.

A half ton of powder was carried away from the government shop in Dublin yesterday, and twelve Fenians have been arrested on suspicion of connection with the affair.

WASHINGTON, January 28.—Banks' report, in addition to what has been already stated, says if the naturalized citizens of this country be tried, convicted and punished in Great Britain, our government is duly bound to listen to their appeal and protect them. The committee claim that the doctrine of perpetual allegiance is symbolic of feudalism and force, and is as absolute over body as mind. It has no authority here except as an element of English common law, existing at the time of revolution. The report says the point we make must be conceded, that the rights we claim can be permanently denied is impossible.

Previous to adjournment yesterday the Senate passed a bill removing disabilities from Gov. Patton, of Alabama—Buckalew, Davis, Drake, Fowler and Hendricks voting nay.

A report is in circulation that Geo. J. Beatty, Radical, is elected to Congress from the Eighth Ohio district.

The Secretary of the Treasury is opposed to Ingersoll's bill for issuing forty-five million dollars of new legal tender notes.

The case of Elgee against the United States, which has been before court for a long time, was finally disposed of to-day in favor of Government by the Supreme Court affirming the judgment of the court below. The suit involves some half a million dollars, the proceeds of abandoned or captured property, and the decision sends the money into the United States Treasury.

It is generally believed by President Johnson's friends that he will sign the anti Contraction bill, passed last week; but it is possible that he may conclude to permit the bill to become a law by the lapse of the constitutional time.
